STRATEGIC RECOMMENDATION LETTER
RE: MR. YOUSSEF DOUMA

Master's Degree in Data Science & Big Data

In my capacity as Director General of Leaders University, and drawing upon my experience at the highest levels of government, I have the privilege of identifying the exceptional talents who will define tomorrow's technological landscape. It is with the utmost confidence that I provide this recommendation for Mr. Youssef DOUMA.

Youssef embodies a new generation of hybrid engineers, uniquely capable of bridging advanced data analytics with an exceptional mastery of modern infrastructures. His background, marked by deep immersion in Cloud (AWS) technologies and DevOps methodologies, demonstrates a professional profile of rare technical versatility.

Throughout his time at our institution and in his professional collaborations, I have personally identified the core qualities that distinguish him as a future leader:

- Innovative Mindset & Bold Initiative: Youssef does not merely execute; he designs. His proactive spirit allows him to tackle complex data architectures and automation pipelines with strategic vision and remarkable clarity.
- Hardworking Character & Result-Oriented Focus: His commitment is absolute. His ability to master cutting-edge technological environments in record time—as noted by industry experts from AWS—is the result of relentless hard work and exemplary discipline.
- Collaborative Intelligence: Beyond his skills as a problem solver, Youssef possesses an interpersonal ease that makes him a catalyst for team cohesion. His ability to simplify complex technical concepts into actionable insights is a strategic asset for any agile organization.

The unanimous feedback from his peers and mentors, describing him as a “raw talent” and a “major asset,” confirms my conviction: Youssef is a reliable expert and a proactive force who will bring immediate and lasting value to any ambitious organization.

I recommend his candidacy with the highest level of confidence and without reservation. Through his talent and integrity, he will undoubtedly uphold the reputation for excellence of Leaders University.

Foued DAGHFOUS
